

402-000 pursuant to Section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, all as more fully set forth in the request that is on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

Specifically Natural proposes to operate an existing point to both deliver and receive gas from MidContinent Market Center, Inc., (MCMC), a Hinshaw pipeline, and to construct and operate the 400-foot lateral to a new twelve-inch bi-directional meter to be constructed by MCMC, for the purpose of providing Part 284 transportation service.

Any person or the Commission's staff may, within 45 days after issuance of the instant notice by the Commission, file pursuant to Rule 214 of the Commission's Procedural Rules (18 CFR 385.214) a motion to intervene of notice of intervention and pursuant to Section 157.205 of the Regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR 157.205) a protest to the request. If no protest is filed within the time allowed therefor, the proposed activity shall be deemed to be authorized effective the day after the time allowed for filing a protest. If a protest is filed and not withdrawn within 30 days after the time allowed for filing a protest, the instant request shall be treated as an application for authorization pursuant to Section 7 of the Natural Gas Act.

New Jersey Natural Energy Company; Notice of Issuance of Order

October 21, 1996.

New Jersey Natural Energy Company (New Jersey Energy) submitted for filing a rate schedule under which New Jersey Energy will engage in wholesale electric power and energy transactions as a marketer. New Jersey Energy also requested waiver of various Commission regulations. In particular, New Jersey Energy requested that the Commission grant blanket approval under 18 CFR Part 34 of all future issuances of securities and assumptions of liability by New Jersey Energy.

On October 2, 1996, pursuant to delegated authority, the Director, Division of Applications, Office of Electric Power Regulation, granted requests for blanket approval under Part 34, subject to the following:

Within thirty days of the date of the order, any person desiring to be heard or to protest the blanket approval of issuances of securities or assumptions of liability by New Jersey Energy should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211 and 385.214).

Absent a request for hearing within this period, New Jersey Energy is authorized to issue securities and assume obligations or liabilities as a guarantor, endorser, surety, or otherwise in respect of any security of another person; provided that such issuance or assumption is for some lawful object within the corporate purposes of the applicant, and compatible with the public interest, and is reasonably necessary or appropriate for such purposes.

The Commission reserves the right to require a further showing that neither public nor private interests will be adversely affected by continued approval of New Jersey Energy's issuances of securities or assumptions of liability.

Notice is hereby given that the deadline for filing motions to intervene or protests, as set forth above, is November 1, 1996.

Copies of the full text of the order are available from the Commission's Public Reference Branch, 888 First Street NE., Washington, DC 20426.

Texas Eastern Transmission Corporation; Notice Granting Late Intervention

October 21, 1996.

On October 16, 1996, the Pennsylvania Office of Consumer Advocate (Pa.OCA) filed a motion to intervene out-of-time in the above-docketed proceeding. No party filed an answer in opposition to the motion.

The petitioner appears to have a legitimate interest under the law that is not adequately represented by other parties. Granting the intervention will not cause a delay or prejudice any other party. It is in the public interest to allow the petitioner to appear in this proceeding. Accordingly, good cause exists for granting the late intervention.

Pursuant to Section 375.302 of the Commission's Regulations (18 CFR 375.303), the petition is permitted to intervene in this proceeding subject to the Commission's rules and regulations
